SIR,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 19th instant, forwarding, for submission to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the Twenty-fourth Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

W. S. B. KAYE.

The Deputy Keeper,

Public Record Office,

Four Courts.

THE TWENTY-FOURTH REPORT OF THE
DEPUTY KEEPER OF THE PUBLIC RECORDS IN IRELAND.

TO THE RIGHT HONORABLE THE EARL OF ZETLAND,

LORD LIEUTENANT-GENERAL AND GENERAL GOVERNOR OF IRELAND.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

1. On the 22nd May, 1891, an Order was made by your Appendix I. Excellency in Council, directing that in pursuance of Section 5 of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, the Records which had been for over twenty years deposited in the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties of Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork (East Riding and West Riding), Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, the counties of the cities of Cork and Limerick, and the county of the town of Drogheda, should be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of His Honor, the Master of the Rolls.

2. Before the close of the year, His Honor signed warrants for Armagh, Carlow, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Queen's county, and Tipperary, South Riding, for the county of the town of Drogheda, and for a portion of the collections at Limerick and Wicklow.

3. The Records of the counties of Carlow, Fermanagh, Kerry, Longford, Louth, and of the county of the town of Drogheda, have been transferred, assorted, and duly deposited in their places in the Record Treasury of this Department, and Schedules of them will be found on paragraphs 28-39, infra: those of Armagh, Down, Londonderry, Mayo, and Queen's county, were in process of transfer and arrangement at the end of the year.

4. The Records of Tipperary, South Riding, and of the Crown Office, Wicklow, were ready for transfer, whilst the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for Cavan, Meath, Sligo, and Wexford stated that Schedules of their Records were being made out, preparatory to the issue of warrants for transfer. The Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the county and county of the city of Limerick appears either unable or unwilling to schedule the Records in his custody, and the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the East and West Ridings of Cork state that all their Records were consumed in the great fire in Cork courthouse in March, 1891.

Appendix II. 5. A request having been made to the Master of the Rolls, under the 14th Section of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, by the Lord Chief Justice of the Queen's Bench, that for the future the Records of that division should be transferred to this Department at the end of ten years from the making thereof, instead of twenty years, the period mentioned in the Act, His Honor was pleased to accede to it.

Appendix III. 6. A similar request having been made by the Lord Chief Baron in relation to the Records of the Exchequer Division, it was also granted by the Master of the Rolls.

Appendix IV. 7. The Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, entertaining the opinion that it would be for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries that the books containing copies of Wills, proved since the 11th January, 1858, should not be transferred yearly to the Public Record Office, his Certificate to that effect was sent to the Master of the Rolls, who, taking into consideration the fact that, under Section 55 of the Act 20 and 21 Victoria, chapter 79, transcripts of these Will Books were regularly made and sent to the Principal Registry in Dublin, from which they were afterwards, from time to time, transferred to this Department, decided that in future these Will Books should be excepted from the increment annually transferred from the District Registries, and His Honor further directed that the books of this class, which had been removed under former Warrants, should be restored to their original places of deposit. This has been carried out, and the volumes enumerated in the Schedule to His Honor's order, have been returned to their respective District Registries.

8. There have been transferred to this Department during the past year, the following Records:—

40. During the year 75 Deeds affecting the rights of the Crown, of which 68 are conveyances of Crown and Quit Rents, have been received and deposited here.

41. By the death of Mr. George F. Barry, a vacancy was created in the staff of the State Paper Office, under the superintendence of Sir J. Bernard Burke, Ulster, which has been filled by the appointment of Mr. Walter J. Jerred to a clerkship in this Department, and detailing him for duty in the State Paper Office.

Internal Fittings.

42. Eight Bays have had galvanised iron shelving substituted for the former wooden fittings, which completes the substitution of iron shelving for wood in the Record Treasury.

43. One side of the right hand vault has been fitted with iron bar supports to hold the Deeds Boxes removable from the Land Judges' Division.

44. The fitting of the Trays in Bay 8 D with zinc bottoms and sides to serve as drawers has been completed for the present, and there are now in the Bay 349 drawers containing 2,640 Rolls. A diagram, showing the changes and increments of Records in the Record Treasury is annexed.

Sorting and Arrangement of Records.

45. The arrangement in dictionary order of the contents of twenty-three sacks from the Bankruptcy Court, labelled "Dockets, Commissions and Proceedings in Chancery," has been completed; they contained documents in some 7,517 separate causes, with about 25 papers in each.

46. In continuance of the system of encasing the Rolls in paper coverings, 510 Plea Rolls, 613 Statute Rolls, 20 Convert Rolls, 155 Recognizance Rolls, 13 Palatinate of Tipperary Rolls, and 13 Exchequer Decree Rolls have been thus dealt with.

47. Two thousand one hundred and eighteen bundles of Records have been stamped, in addition to the Records stamped daily when brought into the Search Room for inspection.

48. The Wills and Administrations removed from the Principal and District Registries of the Court of Probate have been placed in dictionary order, and the former in envelopes in a continuous series.

49. The Records transferred from the Offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties of Carlow, Formanagh, Kerry, Longford, Louth, and the county of the Town of Drogheda have been arranged in one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six bundles, covered with brown paper, and deposited in their ultimate destinations.

4 Report, par.
Appendix VI.

50. The Records of the Manor of St. Sepulchre, which had been transferred from the Provincial Court of the diocese of Dublin in the year 1871, have been methodised and arranged in 159 dust-proof parcels. A classified list of them is given at Appendix VI.

51. The Fiants of George II. have been arranged consecutively in the order of the dates at which they were received into Chancery.

52. Sixty-four bundles of the Records of the Clerk of the Crown and Peace for the county of Kildare, and 226 bundles of miscellaneous Records have been flattened and covered with wrapping paper.

53. The contents of 8 boxes and 2 sacks of Diocesan Records of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross have been arranged, and sorted into 56 bundles under their proper classification.

54. In the Bookbinding and Repairing Department, 70 Wills, 30 Christ Church Deeds, 73 pages of Parochial Registers, and 14 miscellaneous Records have been repaired; 100 volumes of Specifications of Inventions Patents, 119 volumes of Parish Registers, and 308 miscellaneous volumes have been bound.

55. The Red Book of the Exchequer has been rebound; and the Table of Contents (a copy of which is printed at page 159 of the Second Report of the late Record Commissioners for Ireland), having become frayed, and in many places illegible, and containing many inaccuracies, a new Table of Contents has been compiled, engrossed on parchment, and bound up therewith. Appendix VII.

Indexing and Calendarizing.

56. Indexes to the Matrimonial License Bonds of the Dioceses of Ardagh, Elphin, Kilmore, and Ossory have been drafted and compared. For the Dioceses of Achonry, Cashel, Connor, Down, Dromore, Emly, Killala, Killaloe, Limerick, and Tuam, they have been drafted, and for Armagh, Clogher, Cloyne, Cork, Lismore, Ross, and Waterford, the drafts are in progress.

57. Indexes to Volumes I. and II. of the Grant Books of the Diocese of Ferns have been drafted, compared, and engrossed.

58. An Alphabetical Index in dictionary order has been made to the Cause Papers of the Court of Bankruptcy.

59. The Indexes to the Wills of the Dioceses of Dublin and Kildare, compiled in 1872, having become dilapidated from use, the transcripts made for the purposes of the Diocesan Amalgamated Wills Index have been copied and substituted for them. 23 Report, sec. 41.

60. The Draft Catalogue to the Bills of the ancient Pleadings of Chancery has been advanced to 20th January, 1625, making the number of Bills now catalogued 6,681. 23 Report, sec. 38.

61. The arrangement in dictionary order of the draft slips for the Index to the Grant Books of the Consistorial Court of Dublin has progressed to the letter R. 23 Report, sec. 38.

23 Report, sec.

Appendix VIII.

62. The calendar to Christ Church Deeds has been continued by Mr. M'Enery down to the end of the reign of Elizabeth, as far as Deed numbered 1453, and is printed herewith. The remaining Deeds are chiefly leases, which are practically renewals (in one form or another) of those already printed, and it is not intended, for the present at least, to print any more. An Index to the Deeds calendared is in progress.

63. The consolidated detailed index to the Records of the Incumbered and Landed Estates Court has been advanced to page 222, that of the Record Tower, Dublin Castle, to page 341, the Custom House to page 476, the Chancery collection to page 471 of volume II, the Testamentary Collection to page 90, and the Clerks of the Crown and Peace to page 150.

Proceedings under the Parochial Records Acts, 38 & 39 Vic., c. 59, and 39 & 40 Vic., c. 58.

64. The Reports of Parochial Officers who have custody of their Parish Registers, under Retention Orders granted by the Master of the Rolls (now 523 in number), were, for the year 1891, fully furnished.

65. The Report for the parish of Killelagh stated that the safe provided for the Records no longer existed, upon which they were removed here, and the original Retention Order was cancelled by His Honor the Master of the Rolls.

66. Damp was reported to be existent in the places of deposit of five parishes, but it is expected that the adoption of the measures which have proved successful in other parishes will stop the evil.

67. During the course of the year 1891, the Registers of fifteen parishes became attachable, and of those, eight have been transmitted for preservation here, and seven are retained in local custody under His Honor's Orders. The subjoined tables exhibit the changes in the places of deposit and custody of parochial Records during the year.

I. Parishes, the Records of which have been transferred to the Public Record Office in the year 1891 :—

In addition to the above, fees have been remitted to the amount of £35 15s. 6d. on copies made for Public Departments, which would otherwise have been a charge on the public.

70. I beg to acknowledge donations of eight volumes of Record publications by the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls in England, and two volumes by the Deputy Clerk Register of Scotland; the Deputy Keeper presented to the Library of the Department a pamphlet on the Book of Common Prayer according to the uses of the Church of Ireland, its History and Sanction, by the Rev. William Reeves, D.D., and "Decrets organiques et Règlement (Archives de l'Empire)" printed at Paris in 1856; and Mr. H. F. Berry presented a paper on the water supply of ancient Dublin, written by him for the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Ireland.

71. Numerous Searches under Literary Certificates have been made in Pedigree matters during the year, and the Records have been investigated for materials for histories of Donaghmore, Glenarm, Ballyshannon, the county Kildare, the county Wexford, the diocese of Ossory, Limerick Cathedral, and Churches in the county Clare, the county Meath, the diocese of Cashel, Carrignamuck Castle, the county Cork, the county Louth, Sheriffs of county Sligo, the South Wales Borderers, the Town of Navan, and for the Dictionary of National Biography.

Dated at the Public Record Office,
Four Courts, Dublin, this 26th day of May, 1892.

J. J. DIGGES LA TOUCHE,
Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland.

I humbly certify to Your Excellency that this Report is made by the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records in Ireland, under my direction, pursuant to the Statute.

A. M. PORTER,
Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX I.

BY THE LORD LIEUTENANT AND PRIVY COUNCIL IN IRELAND.

ZETLAND.

Whereas by Section 5 of the "Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867," it is provided that it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, to order that Records belonging to Her Majesty, deposited in any office, court, place, or custody in Ireland, other than is thereinbefore mentioned, shall be thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and thereupon the provisions of that Act shall extend to all such Records, and to the persons then having the charge or custody of the same, as fully as if such office, court, place, or custody had been named and included in that Act:

And whereas the offices of Clerk of the Crown and Clerk of the Peace have been amalgamated in the case of the following counties, and counties of cities and towns, viz.:—Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, East Riding and West Riding, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, Cork, Drogheda, and Limerick:

And whereas the Right Honorable the Master of the Rolls is of opinion that in all cases where the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace have become amalgamated, the provisions of the Public Records (Ireland) Act, 1867, should be extended to the Records of those offices:

And whereas it appears to Us necessary and desirable to provide for the safe custody and proper arrangement of the aforesaid Records, and of other similar Records, which may be from time to time deposited in the said offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the said counties:

Now We, Lawrence, Earl of Zetland, the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council in Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in Us as aforesaid, do hereby order that all Records, as defined by Section 3 of the aforesaid Act, belonging to Her Majesty, and which have been for over twenty years deposited in the offices of the Clerks of the Crown and Peace for the counties, and counties of cities and towns of Armagh, Carlow, Cavan, Cork, East Riding and West Riding, Down, Fermanagh, Kerry, Limerick, Londonderry, Longford, Louth, Mayo, Meath, Queen's, Sligo, Tipperary, Wexford, Wicklow, Cork, Drogheda, and Limerick, shall be henceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls; and We do hereby further, by and with the advice aforesaid, order that all Records, defined as aforesaid, which have been deposited in the said offices within the last twenty years, or which shall hereafter be deposited therein, shall, so soon as same shall have been deposited for over twenty years, be from thenceforth under the charge and superintendence of the Master of the Rolls.

The Order in Council, dated the 4th day of May, 1891, made under the provisions of the above Act, is hereby revoked.

Given at the Council Chamber, Dublin Castle, this 22nd day of May, 1891.

LEINSTER.

APPENDIX II.

THE HIGH COURT OF JUSTICE IN IRELAND—QUEEN'S BENCH DIVISION.

Pursuant to the Public Records (Ireland) Act, Section 14, I hereby request that the Records of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland for over ten years from the making thereof, that is to the end of the year 1880, may be removed to the Public Record Office of Ireland. And that in future the time for transfer may be at the end of ten years from the making thereof, instead of twenty years as hitherto.

Dated this 24th day of January, 1891.

PETER O'BRIEN, C.J.

To the Right Honorable
The Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX III.

Pursuant to the Public Records (Ireland) Act, Sec. 14, I hereby request that the Records of the Exchequer Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, of over ten years from the making thereof, that is to the end of the year 1880, may be removed to the Public Record Office of Ireland. And that in future the time for transfer may be at the end of ten years from the making thereof, instead of twenty years as hitherto.

Dated this 24th day of January, 1891.

C. PALLAS, C.B.

To the Right Honorable
The Master of the Rolls.

APPENDIX IV.

I, the Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, being of opinion that it would be advisable and for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries, that the books containing the copies of the wills proved since the 11th January, 1858, be not removed from the several District Registries yearly to the Public Record Office, do hereby certify that it will be conducive to the ends of justice and to the due performance of the public business of the Probate Court in the District Registries that the books containing the copies of wills proved since the 11th January, 1858, should not be transferred to the Public Record Office at the end of twenty years from the making thereof.

Dated this 15th day of June, 1891.

ROBT. R. WARREN.

Whereas the District Registrars of the Court of Probate in Ireland, in pursuance of the 20 and 21 Vic., c. 79, s. 55, send copies of the wills proved with them to the Principal Registry in Dublin, which are transferred amongst the yearly increment, to the Public Record Office. And whereas the said Registrars also keep in their respective District Registries books containing copies of the proved wills, called Will Books. And whereas the Right Honorable R. R. Warren, Judge of the Probate Division of the High Court of Justice in Ireland, being of opinion that it would be advisable and for the convenience of the public in the several District Registries, that the said books, containing the copies of the proved wills, be not removed from the said District Registries yearly to the Public Record Office, hath certified that it will be conducive to the ends of justice, and to the due performance of the public business of his Court in the said District Registries, that the said Will Books of the said several Registries should not be transferred to the Public Record Office at the end of twenty years from the making thereof. And whereas I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland, am satisfied that the retention of the said Will Books in the custody of the District Registrars will not be attended with any hiatus in the sequence of Probate Records in the Public Record Office, as there will still be of record therein the original Wills, and the copies thereof, made under the 55th Section of the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857. And whereas it appears to me that it would be to the public advantage that the Records aforesaid should not be removed from time to time to the Public Record Office from the several District Registries. Now I, the Right Honorable Andrew Marshall Porter, Master of the Rolls in Ireland, do order and direct that the said Will Books be not removed from the several District Registries as they accrue until further order. And I hereby authorize J. J. Digges La Touche, esquire, LL.D., the Deputy-Keeper of the Public Records, not to remove the said books until further order; and I now hereby order him to return to the custody of the said several District Registrars the Will Books that have been made under the Probates and Letters of Administration (Ireland) Act, 1857, since the 11th January, 1858, and been transferred to the Public Record Office, as set out in the Schedule hereto.

Dated at the Rolls Chamber, Dublin, this 18th day of June, 1891.

1147. Sir Peter White, vicar of Clonmell, having requested Wm. Butler, commissary of Nicholas, bishop of Lismore, in the deaneries of Ardlyne and Kilsillane, to examine witnesses on oath before a Notary Public respecting :

Article I. Whether Thomas Levet, regular canon of Holy Trinity, Dublin, was the lawful son of Wm. Levet and Anastasia Walsh, his lawful wife.

Article II. Whether the public voice concerning same always ran as now among the responsible citizens of Clonmell. The said Commissary having complied therewith, Thomas White, Burgess of the said town, deposed that Article I. was true and that he knew so, because he saw the said Thomas Levet nursed in the house of his said father, and then and since he was named and reputed the son of the said William and was never ascribed to any other, and that Article II. was also true, because he never saw or heard to the contrary; Redmond Roch and Walter Poer, 60 years of age, Theobald White and Wm. Levet, 40 years of age, and Thomas M. Oyne and Robert Branek, 80 years of age, agreed with the deposition of the first witness; Sir Nicholas fitz Henry, late vicar of Clonmell, 80 years of age, deposed that Article I. was true and that he knew so because Wm. Levet, at the time of the birth of the said Thomas, lived near him, stated that the mother of the said Thomas had never been the object of scandal or insinuation concerning any man during her life, but was married to the said William in her youth, lived chastely with him until her death, and faithfully kept the marriage bed free from suspicion, and added that master Henry Levet, carnal brother of the said William, lived in England at the time of the conception of the said Thomas and long after; John Fagane, 70 years of age, deposed that Article I. was true, and that he knew so because he was sponsor for the said Thomas, and knew him to be the lawful son of William, brother of master Henry Levet, and Anastasia Walsh, adding that for 12 years before the conception of the said Thomas in his mother's womb the said Henry had betaken himself to Oxford University for study and remained there and in the adjacent parts until two years after the birth of the said Thomas, and, on being asked how he knew this, replied that he was the intimate friend of the said Henry before his departure and after his arrival; deponent stated that the second Article was true so far as he had seen and heard. All which proceedings were held on the date hereof in the Church of the B. M., Clonmell, before Sirs Nicholas Molrony, Thomas White, James Donsghu and Patrick Laynagh, priests, Patrick Keyn and William White, clerks of Lismore diocese, and John Hanregghain, clerk of Lismore diocese, notary public, who at the command of the said Commissary framed this public instrument recording the proceedings.

Thomas White, sovereign, John and Benedict White, John and Wm. Fagane, Remund Roch, Walter Poer, and John Molrony, representing the council of Clonmell, concurred with the testimony of Sir Nicholas fitz Henry aforesaid, that Thomas Levet, canon of Holy Trinity, was the lawful son of William Levet and Anastasia Walsh, his wife.
